Housing Timeline

This section documents the residences of Violette, Pauletta, and David, highlighting instability, evictions, and their impact on Violette’s and Zady’s well-being.

Note: Sandra Donatello (Pauletta’s mother) played a critical role in providing stability for Violette and Zady during periods of Pauletta’s housing instability. Sandra’s residence at 210 Cortland Dr. Unit E, South Elgin, IL was the most stable environment for the children, especially during Pauletta’s evictions and erratic behavior. After Sandra sold the house and moved out of state, Pauletta’s housing situation deteriorated further, directly impacting the children’s living conditions.

Orders of Protection (OP) History: A Pattern of Weaponization

Pauletta has filed at least four OPs since Violette’s conception, using them as a tool to silence David, block co-parenting communication, and invert narratives of abuse. Each OP coincides with David asserting boundaries or challenging her parenting decisions.
